

Function Modifiers

- They test a condition before calling a function. The function will be called only if the condition evaluates to true;
- Using Function Modifiers we avoid redundant-code and possible errors. Don't repeat yourself;
- They are contract properties and are inherited;
- They don't return and use only require() and semicolon (;)
- They are defined using the modifier keyword;